A letter dated Jan. 3, 1930 from Lucy Foster (Mrs. Frank Townsend of Greenwich, N.Y.) to Mary Temple Robinson, Waterloo, Nebraska, suggests that the latter write to Mrs. R. E. Knight of 907 Cheyenne Ave, Alliance Neb., as Mrs. Knight is also a descendant of Philip and Lydia Case. (Mrs. Knight was State Regent of the D. A. R. 1936-7 for Nebraska). She states that Levi Temple made a great mistake by including Leonard among Philip's children, but does not elaborate. She also says that Mrs. Knight ~~was~~ a great-great-granddaughter of Samantha Case who married James Dickinson. She suggests that a George Dickinson in Hebron might help with information.

A letter dated Mar. 29, 1929, from Cora Case Porter, Librarian, Muskogee, Oklahoma, to Mrs. L. D. Temple asks concerning the ancestry of James Case whose son, James Preston Case was the brother of Sanford Franklin Case, father of the writer, who died in Hubbard Tex, Apr. 3, 1896. (not clear as to which man the death date refers). James Case moved from Kentucky to Brunswick, Chariton Co., Missouri, after the death of his first wife (name unknown) with his children; Richard, Septimus, Sanford Franklin (b. June 11, 1840, Franklin, Ken.) John, David, William, James Preston, Bettie, Sarah (m. Frank Ehrhardt). James m. 2nd (name unknown) and had Jasper, Newton, George, Jeff, Mattie. James Case d. in Rock Island Prison, Dec. 26, 1864, in the Confederate service. Tradition says that James Preston Case was named for his mother's people and that his father's family came originally from Connecticut. James Case must have been b. ca 1810. Sanford Franklin Case left his Missouri home before he was 20 years old and went to Texas. His half-brothers Jasper and Newton stayed in Brunswick and Salsbury, Missouri, where their children were living when the letter was written.

Mrs. Knight's notes say "Philip's will probate, death and list of children is in the New York Genealogical & Biographical Record, Vol LVII, page 385."

Nathan Case b. Feb. 22, 1805 - d. Apr. 8, 1887 - married

Emaline Parke b. Mar. 30, 1815 - d. Dec. 3, 1859

They were married in Oakland County, Michigan in 1834. On Sept. 23, 1836 he made original land entry - E. $\frac{1}{2}$ of S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ sec. 34 Riley twp. Clinton Co., Mich. He built a cabin and moved his family to the new homestead in 1837. Here they lived until they died. There were seven children.

Oscar b. 1847 - m. Annie Grove - only one child - died when infant.

Betty b. 1850 - m. William Chapin

Nathan Case was the son of Ephraim Case and Octavia Butterfield and was born in Washington Co. N. Y. Known chn. of Ephraim + Octavia were:

Rosetta b. about 1799

Nathan b. Feb. 22, 1805

Lois b. about 1807

Abigail b. about 1809

Ephraim Jr. b. about 1810

These were recorded by a son of Louise Lux. He said he and his mother "figured" them out a long time ago and didn't know just how. Abigail could have been the 1st and Rosetta the 4th instead of as listed. He thought that if there were others they had died young. His grandfather never spoke of them.

We know Nathan and Ephraim Jr. came from Washington Co. N. Y. to Oakland Co. Mich. as young men. Relatives came with them: one a cousin, Edward Butterfield, b. 1812 in N. Y. He asserted claim to land across the road from Nathan Case in Riley, Clinton Co., Mich. He lived and died there in 1868 - buried in St. Riley cemetery. His first wife was named Sarah - she died later than 1860 and he married again to Mrs Eliza Skinner in 1866.

Edu. and Sarah Butterfield had chn: John; Adelaide, Jane, Frank, & da.

(First son named John, Edu. might be son of John Butterfield in Putnam by 1803)
Eduard's father prob. a bro. of Octavia's)

Census Records

1790 census records in Washington Co. N.Y. lists 7 Case families: Isaac; Elijah; (Barney; Aaron; Timothy; Philip; Reuben.

1790 census lists Nathaniel Butterfield, Westfield twp. - later Putnam - Wash. Co. N.Y.

1 m. over 16 - 2 under 16 - 1 female (could be bro. Octavia)

1800 census listed Philip Case and Bernard Case as heads of families in Putnam, Wash. Co. N.Y. - but no mention of Ephraim.

Hist. of Wash. Co. N.Y. - Stone - p 473: "among the early settlers at Putnam betw. 1776 and 1803 were Ephraim Case and John Butterfield.

List of qualified voters in 1795 does not include Ephraim Case so if he came before 1795, he was not yet 21 yrs. of age, and unmarried - (he was not "head of house" in 1800 and as a rule young marrieds did not live in house with in-laws. Long for cabins were small and new ones easy to build.)

It is possible that his father was Ephraim Case who settled betw. 1786-1803 but had died or gone before 1795 and saw Ephraim a minor - in that case Octavia prob. was living there with one of the Butterfields. On the other hand, if Ephraim's & Octavia's eldest dau. was born prior to 1800, as a later census indicates, they may have come to Putnam betw. 1800 & 1803 already married. Or they could have been living with some one else in 1800.

Octavia over 26 in 1810, under 45 in 1825 must have been born betw 1780-1784.

Ephraim Case and Nathan Case. So. Riley was a post village about $\frac{3}{4}$ mile from Adelaide farm.

1868 - Ephraim Case is named as Justice of Peace in Riley.

Summary

Nathan Case's record was already had - nothing new

His father, Ephraim Case, was born on the ocean, prob. before 1775, and died prob. late 1837 or early 1840 in Putnam, Wash. Co. N.Y.

His mother, Betsey Butterfield was born in N. Hampshire betw. 1784-84, was alive later than 1825 in Putnam, Wash. Co. N.Y.

They must have been married not later than 1805 a few years

If Ephraim was born after 1775 on ocean prob. "evacuation" boat if near 1775 date - more likely even to 1775.

*Daniel Coon - an orderly sergeant of the Rev.,
Settled on a farm now owned by a g-grandson of Daniel.
Present owner of farm is a son of Rufus by his son Thomas.*

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

In the second part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

The third part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

In the fourth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

In the sixth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

In the eighth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

In the tenth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

Eliphalet and Thankful died of (7) in 1860 (when Michael was two) (They were 39 and 35, resp.) (2)

Michael and his brothers, Nathaniel and Eliphalet, settled in Granville, N.Y., in 1775 or 1777. Nathaniel, who was from Conn., had a son, Matthias (3).

Michael married Rachel McWithy, probably at Granville, and probably between 1777 and 1781. (See below).

A Mich. and a Nathan Parker served in Vermont in the Revolution in 1777(?) and a Michael and an Nathaniel Parker served in Vermont in the Revolution in 1781 (4,5).

Michael was living in Granville in 1790 with a family of 1-1-4; he was living there in 1800, but not in 1810. (6) Nathaniel and Eliphalet are also listed in the 1790 census. (in Granville)

Michael's remarried widow, now Rachel Shepherd, applied for a pension on the basis of Michael's Rev. service. One of the affidavits in the (rejected) application states: "Rachel Shepherd was the former wife of Michael Parker, formerly of Washington Co., N.Y., and latterly of Aurelius, Cayuga Co., N.Y." There is also a statement of one Timothy Baker, who knew Michael Parker, and knew that he served in the Rev., and that Rachel McWithy and Michael Parker were married, he thinks, between the periods he served. (I am trying to obtain the date of this application).

No record has yet been found of the date and place of death of Michael, or of the names of his children.

Notes: In the 1790 census are listed several Hitchcocks and ~~two~~ families by the name of McWithy. These are the only ~~1/2~~ McWithys listed in the 1790 census, so they are probably brothers of Rachel.

II. Hiram⁶ Parker, said to be the son of Michael Parker of N.Y.⁽⁹⁾ and probably the son of Michael and Rachel McWithy Parker, born Dec. 5, 1797 in N.Y.(10) and probably in Granville. In 1827 he was living in Milan, Ohio (11), when he married Harriet Bangs on April 12. (Her ancestry is well known).

(The Parker Family)

Issue: (See attached form)

By 1850, I believe, Hiram Parker had a farm near Lake Mills, Wisc. (10). He died Oct. 24, 1858 at Lake Mills (9). His widow Harriet removed to San Jose, Calif. and married Bernard Thompson of San Jose (11). She died at San Jose July 2, 1882. (9).

III. Hiram James Parker (my great grandfather) is said to have claimed to be a cousin of Alton Brooks Parker. However, the latter was descended from the immigrant, Nathan Parker. To date I have found no connection between Alton Brooks Parker and Michael Parker of Granville, N.Y.

Dear Mrs Shellabarger:

This is in reply to your request of September 16, 1950.

Among the pension records and bounty -land records in the National Archives is a file cited as above. A summary of the pertinent data in this file appears below.

Parents: Not mentioned.

Birth: In Washington county, New York, date not mentioned. In 1871 the veteran stated that he was 76 years old.

Family: The veteran married Elizabeth Nelson on December 24 or 25, 1818 in Hebron, Washington county, New York. They had the following children: Jane Agnes Flack born September 8, 1819 died February 23, 1870 in Joliet, Will county, Illinois. William Nelson Flack born June 1, 1821, John Alexander Flack born August 4, 1823, Mortimer Augustus Flack born May 25, 1825, Amanda Maria Flack born on May 15, 1827; R. Whalen Jackson Flack born on November 23, 1829; Washington J. Flack born on September 19, 1832; and Martha Josephine born on Jul 6, 1839. In 1878 Elizabeth Flack widow of the veteran was residing in Joliet, Illinois at which time she stated that she was 79 years of age. In this same year Mortimer Augustus Flack and William Nelson Flack, children of the veteran appeared in Joliet as witnesses for their mother. Elizabeth the widow of the veteran was still living as late as 1881.

Residence: The veteran enlisted in Hebron, Washington county, New York. Soon after his marriage the veteran and his wife moved to Essex county, New York where they lived until 1845. They then moved to Joliet, Illinois where they continued to live until the veteran's death, September 25, 1876 in Joliet, Illinois

Service: A report from the Third Auditor's Office, Treasury Department shows that John Flack served from September 8, 1814 to September 22, 1814 in Captain Amos Scott's Company of New York Militia. The veteran stated that his service was as private with the New York militia under Captain Scott and Colonel David Mathews. He likewise stated that he was in the Battle of Pattsburg, New York.

My dear Mrs Shellabarger

Flack references in a series of scrap books of obituary clippings from Washington county newspapers I find no mention of John J. Flack. In v 5 p. 1516 item David H. Flack died 12/23/1892. I quote:

"The family of Flack of Hebron were both paternally and maternally among the first settlers of Salem, N. Y. On the Flack side they were descended from the Auchinlech family of Scotland and the first settler in Salem wrote his name Afflack but it soon became Flack--- one of the curious changes of surnames that follow a settlement from Europe in a new country.

James Flack as he was generally called married Martha a daughter of Deacon James Harsha one of the session of Dr Clark's congregation in Ireland and who came with the colony of the doctor to this country. One of the sons of James Flack and his wife Martha Harsha was Robert Flack who married Martha a daughter of Andrew Lytle and his wife Nancy Stewart both early settlers in Salem. Robert Flack settled in Hebron and among their children was David H. Flack the subject of this sketch who was born in Hebron September 18, 1818. In 1841 he went to Lansingburgh he was in business here and in Troy until a short time ago he died in 1892--he left Mrs Henry Graham, Mrs William Brundage Mrs N. E. Russel and Clarence N. Flack.

Other references mentioned Reverend Alonzo Flack born in Argyle N. Y. died in 1885, Adam W. Flack of Glen Falls died 1894

James Flack and James Flack 2d are listed in the 1790 census of Hebron. The Revolutionary war ancestor named Flack may have been James Affleck listed on p. 167 of the Salem Book 1896, as one who did military service was possibly one of the James Flack's listed above. I find the name written also A f l e s h.

In the Cuyler Reynolds Hudson-Mohawk Genealogical and Family Memoirs v. 3 p. 1020 and 1021 one mention is made of a John Flack but nothing said of his marriage or family. It begins: This Flack is one of the old families of St Lawrence county, New York intermarried with one Newcomb still older in New England. James Flack thought to be a son of Richard Flack was born January 1775 in Washington county, N. Y. died 1839. He is said to have been a resident of the town of Lisbon, St Lawrence county N. Y. prior to the war. Richard and John Flack settled there shortly after 1802. When James came or the relationship existing between them is not shown. The rest of the article concerns James Flack and his children one of whom was John. Flackville was named in honor of James Flack whose wife was Margaret McCarter. Nothing more is given about John.

Crisfield Johnson History of Washington County p. 388 states that Justice Samuel Nelson was a son of John Rogers Neldon who settled first in Argyle then Salem and finally Hebron he married Jane McCarter of Salem of his sons John J., Samuel the justice, Hannah married James McClellan, Polly married Luther Cathcart of Pawlet. One might infer there were other children they are not mentioned.

Sincerely yours,
Edna L. Jacobsen.

My dear Mrs Wade:

Your letter came several weeks ago on the same day that I received a report from the General Services Administration, The National Archives, Washington, D. C. (a government bureau) on John J. Flack's service in the War of 1812. I thought it was rather interesting and in case you don't have it it might be of some value to you at some time or other. Have you ever taken advantage of this government service. They will only answer a query once every six months but if you have the patience to wait your turn you can gradually turn up some interesting information. One question they answered for me concerned an ancestor of my father's who fought with General Marion in the South during the Revolution-- the interesting and scandalous thing was that in his late sixties he married a sixteen year old girl who obtained a widows' pension which she drew until she died at a ripe old age in the year 1904. I guess his service really paid off---didn't it? I notice John J. claim for pension was not allowed --due I presume to the fact that he was a wealthy man and I understand that up to that time pensions were not given to anyone who had property or income. I would like to determine where John's bounty land was located and I will make an attempt to find out, although at present I don't know where to inquire unless it is the same National Archives department. Wouldn't it be fun to be turned loose among all those records where you could just roam at will and look at everything that interested you?

I have found out quite a bit since I wrote to you in April. You were right about Essex county not being formed from St Lawrence. The Flackville I was interested in was in Essex county, adjacent to Lake Champlain--in fact as you suggested the name has been changed to Reber in recent years--and the Flackville in St Lawrence county is quite another place. It took quite a bit of digging to discover this but I did and of further interest ~~was~~ is that a cousin of mine on the Flack side was doing some work in Burlington Vermont this fall and she took a drive to Reber and found an old Flack cemetery. She hadn't been much interested in my genealogical meddling and I had prodded her into this investigative trip to Reber--but I think that she is catching the disease now too---I hope so, as she does a lot of traveling and they could look up many interesting things, that would interest themselves as well as me. This Flackville that was in Essex county was named after John J.--I am quite sure of that. The Flackville St Lawrence county was named for John P. Flack, just where he fits into the picture I don't know but evidently they were a relation.

Are any of the given names of John J.'s children common names in Washington county families? I have more information about the deaths of John's children which I can give you if you wish to have it and I can give you all the names of John's descendants up to date I believe.

Do you know if Essex county would have a historical society or where I would write there to contact anyone that would be interested. The day my cousin was at Reber was Saturday and she said the town was as asleep as the cemetery they visited, so they couldn't find anyone to question.

I had another Revolutionary ancestor who lived for a time in Washington county and died there and my ancestress is also buried some place around there we think. He was Jabin Bosworth and his wife was Luna West Bosworth--they were both Mayflower descendants--she from John and Priscilla Alden and he from the Howlands and Tilleys. My mother who died in 1943 didn't know this interesting lore about her family and would have gotten such a thrill out of it if she had---but I have found out a lot just for the fun of it since she passed away.--and do so wish she were here to appreciate it with me and my father, too, would have been interested in the stories I have been able to find about his early day southern and Pennsylvania Dutch family---which makes me pretty much of a mixture. But if you are a mixture and you study the genealogical background it gives one the most fascinating outline of American history. At least I have found out how the Mayflower children left Plymouth Rock and gradually spread themselves and their influence over the 48 states and beyond. It is a most interesting saga.

John J.'s period of service was certainly very short--from September 8 to 22 ? Was the War over so soon or just that one particular battle ?

I dropped a note to this Miss Harsha in the Seattle telephone directory but haven't received a reply from her. Maybe she thinks the study of genealogy is silly. I thought I was doing some of my kin folks a big favor and sent them a copy of a report on an ancestor (Southern) who had been in the Revolution it was quite a complete biographical record and very interesting I thought---but did they hurt my feelings they said they weren't interested and returned the report ---at least they could have kept the report or even burned it up but to return it to me I thought that was pretty awful and ungracious. There was nothing in it that could have possibly offended them either. All I could get was that they weren't interested in our family genealogy and would thank me not to try to interest them. I think it is a distinct honor to be eligible to join patriotic societies like the D & R etc. So I just thought I was doing them a favor by sending them this record by which they or their descendants could prove their eligibility--but evidently they thought I had some ulterior motive.

I was so sorry to learn that you had been sick but I do hope you are much better ere this. I am glad to learn that you are obeying your doctor.

It was interesting to learn that Hebron was a township containing a number of small hamlets--that explains a lot of things. I don't believe we have that system in the West.

I was certainly wrong about Essex county being part of St Lawrence---there were just two different Flacks with towns named for them---one in St L. and the other in Essex counties.

My information about Salem N. Y. being first settled by a group from Mass. Pelham to be exact comes from New York Biographical and Genealogical Record Vol. 37 page 179--it says they settled it in August 1764 and Dr Clark's parishioners came in 1766 from Balibay, Ireland although they originally came from Scotland.

I hope this long discourse hasn't tired you and I hope that you will continue to improve by minding your doctor and not overdoing. If I hear from Miss Harsha of Seattle I will let you know, and I would appreciate it if you hear of anyone interested in the Flack or Nelson families if you would put them in touch with me. Do you know if any of them trace their ancestors back to the early times and if any of them have the same ancestry as Justice Samuel Nelson ?

Thanking you for your nice letter with best wishes for your health,

Very truly yours

*Deacon John & Wilson was a soldier of the Revolution and was present at Burgoyne's surrender
I have all up the Wilson inscriptions in the East Hebron Cemetery
I learned from a DAR Lineage Book that John (1) Livingston in New York*

Washington Co } James Wilson of the Town of Hebron in the County of Washington being duly sworn says that he is about 78 yrs of age according to the best of his knowledge and belief that about the year 1783 or 84 his father's family together with his uncles of his uncle Jos. Kelly and Mrs. Black settled in the Town of New Kent No. Salem Wash Co that his uncle John Black had 4 sons and one daughter namely Archibald
Robt, Jas, John and Mary that the sons with the exception of John soon after arriving in the State left Salem Arch went going to Canada Robt to the State of Ohio and John after visiting different parts of the Country when news heard from was reported to belong to the North West Fair Company Jas married and settled in the Town of Hebron
Wash Co and died about the year 1834 leaving 3 children whom he survives him and live in the town of Hebron Wash Co namely
John W. Jas H and Betsey wife of James
D. Sillits and the deponent further says that he has frequently visited the family of the deceased and believes that all the facts above stated are true

Daniel Saxton Richardson came over with his brother David Milnear Richardson. David the brother went to Maryland, I think.

Daniel Saxton Richardson, born in England, married Sally Burroughs, from Dublin Ireland, some say but could she be connected with James or Jeremiah Burroughs early settlers there. For Daniel Richardson went straight to Whitehall or Skenesborough as it was then. Or could he have been related to the Richardson threabouts.

Children:

Daniel Saxton Richardson, m.

Mary Richardson

David Milnear Richardson, m. Lydia Ackley, (see above)

Daniel Saxton Richardson died soon after the Revolution and his widow then married David Clough and had one child, Sally Clough and later went to Conn.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

In the second part of the paper, the author discusses the results of the experiments on the structure of the atom. It is shown that the results of the experiments are in good agreement with the predictions of the theory of the structure of the atom.

The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the applications of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the theory of the structure of the atom has many important applications in the field of physics and chemistry.

In the fourth part of the paper, the author discusses the future prospects of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the theory of the structure of the atom is still a subject of active research and that many new results are expected in the future.

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the conclusions of the paper. It is shown that the theory of the structure of the atom is a very important part of the theory of the structure of matter and that it has many important applications in the field of physics and chemistry.

The author wishes to express his thanks to the members of the staff of the Institute of Physics and Chemistry for their assistance in the work on the structure of the atom.
